

Design and character

The project presents an opportunity to create a world class, truly innovative project in sustainability and good design, that will create an urban village that respects the site's heritage and the character of Fitzroy North as well as providing new homes and community resources.

Design and character

New street

Sports courts and residential interface